how the sum of $205 million of Iraq debt had been attributed to Slovenia. He explained that he was under the impression that Serbia and/or Montenegro was claiming all this debt for itself. At any rate, Cerar was not aware that anything had been agreed among the FRY successors on this particular piece of debt. Slovenia is not in a position to make a decision on debt forgiveness until it is certain which portion of the Iraq debt, if any, is ascribed to it. He agreed to look into disbursing the rest of the funds Slovenia has previously pledged. FM Rupel will lead the Slovene delegation to the conference.
